The Roaring Twenties 1st Person Creative Journal – 30 points  Directions: Write a 2-3 page creative first person journal about the Roaring Twenties. Use the textbooks and handouts provided by Mr. Roiko. Include the following information:
1. Make-up your character or choose a historical figure from the twenties.
2. Use at least 10-15 slang terms from the 1920s. Make sure to underline the words you use.
3. Include at least 4-5 topics related to the 1920s (topics listed below).

- Prohibition (642-643)
- Red Scare, Immigration, Labor Unrest, Sacco and Vanzetti, KKK and Scopes Trial (Red Text – 618-624)
- Media, Arts and Entertainment - Radio and Movies (652-657)
- Sports (654) and Fads (650-651)
- Charles Lindbergh (655)
- Flappers and the American Woman (646-649)
- Kids These Days..Article about parents concerned with the youths of the 1920s (handout)
- Youth of the 1920s ((650-651)
- The Automobile (handout and 628-630)
- Politics - President Harding and Coolidge - corruption - Teapot Dome Scandal (626-627)
- Consumer Age - inventions, appliances, electricity and buying on credit (631-633)
- Harlem Renaissance, Jazz Age and Literature (658-663)

At least 4 - 5 topics were covered in the story
10 8 6 4 2
Topics were covered extensively using factual information for each
10 8 6 4 2
There is a creative element to the story or journal entries and at least 10 slang terms were used
10 8 6 4 2